CALL FOR ARTICLES

From the Chief Editor -TUMALR

Tumaini University Makumira (TUMA) , formerly Lutheran Theological College Makumira, is the main campus of Tumaini University Makumira, the university of the Evangelical Lutheran Church in Tanzania (ELCT) established in 1997. The University is located in northern Tanzania (East Africa).

To achieve its mandate, through its faculty of law, TUMA stimulates research, dialogue, publication and wide dissemination of articles and papers on topical legal issues. These are innovative and/or game changing papers that set the tone for legal discourse and development in Africa. Our premier platform for these is the Tumaini University Makumira Law Review (TUMALR). The TUMALR accommodates scholarly, practice-oriented articles, including analyses of treaties, laws or recent judgments. It also incorporates review of books.

We invite Legal Scholars, Researchers, Consultants and/or Legal Practitioners to submit their papers/articles.

We welcome innovative papers or articles in all areas of law.

Should you wish to submit your article and/ or if you have any further questions, please contact us at dannypallangyo@gmail.com or sipholimbe@gmail.com.

The writing guide is on our website – www.makumira.ac.tz and you can request the same from our Assistant Editor at sipholimbe@gmail.com.

Please submit your articles not later than the 31st January 2017.
